

Rhode Island Saltwater Anglers Association Member News

by Lynn Medeiros

The purpose of this column is to pass along information and milestones within the membership. Birthdays, anniversaries, events or get-well wishes are all in order. We also let members know of the passing of other members.

GOOD LUCK

Patriots coach Bill Belichick with Paul Pasqualoni

Long time Member, PAUL PASQUALONI, is the new defensive coordinator for the Detroit Lions. He was the defensive line coach at Boston College last season.

We wish Paul good luck this season... except when the Lions play the Patriots on September 23! Sorry Paul.

CONGRATULATIONS

to 16 year member COTE LAFLAMME who graduated from the Rhode Island Fire Training Academy on April 27. Congratulations also to proud parents, Paul & Susan.

GET WELL

Member RON PORTER went though knee surgery in April, but the recovery didn't go as well as expected, and he had to cancel out on the RISAA May squid fishing trip.

We all wish you a full recovery Ron, and hope to see you at a meeting soon.

CONGRATULATIONS

12-year Member MICHAEL SENECA who, on May 19, was awarded the Air Force Accommodation medal 1st Oak Leaf Cluster for his contribution and support for Hurricanes Irma and Maria while he was deployed to St. Croix.

Thank you for your service Mike!

GET WELL

17-year Member LAMARR WALLACE received a new kidney on April 17th. His wife Toni said that the surgery went well. Hope to see you back soon Lamarr! We all miss you at Take-A-Kid Fishing Day.

GOOD LUCK to Member JOHN JOHNSON who now has a beautiful 21' Stratos to fish from. He has named it "In-Debt"
