PETER LEWIS

displays a pair of black sea bass that he caught while fishing in Long Island Sound last fall. Both weighed four pounds.

Junior Member JAKE SHEA

posing with his first "keeper" striped bass, measuring 30 inches. The 10 year old was fishing with his grandfather JIM PARILLO, off of Provincetown on Reel Deal Fishing Charters. "We had a great day and he is "hooked"," said Jim.

PHIL DUCKETT

displays a nice squid that he caught on the night of April 30 while fishing with the Squidmeister Greg Vespe off Newport.

GEORGE FOTIADES

with his first keeper fluke of the season that he landed while fishing with his dad (Mike) in Narragansett Bay in May.

NOT YOUR AVERAGE SURF ROD.

OF COURSE, A ROCK HOPPER IS NOT YOUR AVERAGE ANGLER.

For more details on our SuperStar Service plan, visit us online.

Designed and built to outperform all other surf sticks, nothing casts and handles fish like a St. Croix® Legend® Surf rod. Starting with our premium SC^{IV} graphite blank incorporating our exclusive FRS, ART™ and IPC® technologies, these beauties set a completely new standard in high-performance surf rod design. The revolutionary, smaller profile Fuji® LC surf guides bring an aggressive new premise to the concept of casting efficiency. Super-sensitive and incredibly light weight – these surf rods are like no others. Check them out. Now.
