Casting Into The Light

featuring author

JANET MESSINEO

Casting Into The Light tells about a champion surfcaster: the education of a young woman hell-bent on following her dream and learning the mysterious and profound sport, the art, of surfcasting on the island of Martha's Vineyard.

Janet knew from the get-go that she wanted to become a great fisherman. She knew she was as capable as any man of catching and landing a huge fish. It took years—and many terrifying nights alone on the beach in complete darkness, in search of a huge creature to pull out of the sea—for her to prove to herself and to the male-dominated fishing community that she could make her dream real.

In the book, Messineo writes of the object of her obsession: striped bass and how it can take a lifetime to become a proficient striped bass fisherman; of stripers as nocturnal feeders, hard-fighting, clever fish that under the cover of darkness trap bait against jetties or between fields of large boulders near shorelines, or, once hooked, rub their mouths against the rocks to cut the line.

Janet Messineo is a former president of the Martha's Vineyard Surfcasters Association. She has written about fishing for many publications, including On the Water, Vineyard Style, and the Martha's Vineyard Times. She lives with her husband, Tristan Israel, in Vineyard Haven, Massachusetts.
